

GOOD THINGS HAPPENING

FORUM DISCUSSES EMPLOYEE SAFETY AND ANXIETY MANAGEMENT

From left; Chris Peck, partner, CBP; Maureen Mackey, partner, Mackey & Guasco Staffing; Cheryl Palmerini, chief of staff, wealth management, Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, Robert D. Noonan, attorney and founder, Robert Noonan and Associates LLC; David Atkinson, director, people and organization group, PwC; Lu Guasco, partner, Mackey & Guasco Staffing; and Sgt. William Brevard, Stamford Police Department.

Nearly 60 local businesses gathered Sept. 21 for a discussion hosted by Mackey & Guasco Staffing LLC, a contract and temporary recruiting firm in Stamford, and CBP, a consulting firm in Stamford, titled, "Anxiety Management in the Workplace: Balancing Employee Privacy with Employee Safety on the Job." Topics of interest included the handling of communicable diseases, transgender protocol and disgruntled employees. This discussion was part of the firms' "HR Power Breakfast Series," which serves as a forum for thought leaders in human resources companies and positions to share best practices and address new trends and challenges.